

Asama Giken received the special award of “Zero Occupational Accidents”

Since serious occupational accidents have been none for these five consecutive years, we received the special award of “Zero occupational accidents” from the occupational accidents preventing councils of Honda Motor Corporation’s related companies.

We are keeping our best to be actively involved in occupational health, safety, to develop a safe and comfortable workplace.